

We the public should have the right to be free of unwanted solicited phone calls from telemarketers. You the FCC have failed the country on several levels and the Do Not Call List is among them cause the laws you passed on it are to weak and shows no back bone.